Remediation Requirements/Guidelines:

1. Student: meet with your counselor & pick up form for classes you need remediate/make up.
2. Pre-pay and sign up in the counseling center before the end of this school year.
3. Student must show proof of payment before ANY testing can begin. All tests are competency based, and if student can pass pre-test with 80%, competency is met and course is completed.
4. If student does not pass the pre-test at 80%, a textbook and a module will be given to be completed. Student may work on packets/modules here at MHS or at home. Once coursework is completed, a post-test is given. Student MAY NOT take post-test until modules are completed, checked off and turned in.
5. Student will be given three attempts to pass post-testing with 70% competency to receive credit. ALL GRADES ARE "P" ONLY. LETTER GRADES ARE NOT GIVEN FOR REMEDIATION.
6. LAST day to pay for summer classes to be able to finish the summer session is JUNE 26th. You must pay Kathy Chappell, our financial secretary. Note: if you pay for a class during the final week of remediation, course MUST be completed by last day of remediation (see above for costs). All payments must be made by above date.
